Sickness & Distress:

Phoenix Bridegroom: September 2nd: Day +196! Dearest Friends and Family, Phoenix visited the outpatient stem cell clinic at Riley Hospital today, for her routine check up, and we are happy to report that she continues to have perfect blood counts! Today labs were drawn to do detailed tests of her immunology, specifically to see if she has all the pieces of a functioning immune system. We are praying that her B cells and T cells have grown and matured, as this is the hurdle she must cross in order to get back to school. We are thrilled and thankful to be at this threshold, and should see some results in 2 weeks or so. Thank you all for sharing our photos and childhood cancer awareness memes...and especially our very special video. It has been seen over 700 times already! This is how we reach people, and eventually make a difference... so again we thank you SO much for showing your support. After watching the video, I asked Phoenix, "So what did you think? Did you like it?" And she smiled so big and replied, "I love it so much." and then much quieter said, "I can't believe all that happened to me." If you haven't seen the video of Phoenix's 4 year cancer journey, here is the link again. We love you and thank you for all that you do.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nFFyj-qZ7DI&feature=youtu.be>

Phoenix got to meet Da Coach! Ditka in the house!

Look at this beautiful face! Phoenix has been sad about missing her friends, so today I surprised her by taking her to Girl Scouts after school. I wish I had taken video...because when the girls saw Phoenix walking up to the playground, they started squealing "it's Phoenix!!" and all 20 ran for a hug. This may not have been "doctor approved." (OK it is not doctor approved)... BUT it was exactly what our spirits needed!! We are so blessed to be surrounded by such loving people. Phoenix has been feeling fantastic lately. We will be back at Riley Stem Cell Clinic on Sept. 28th and expect to hear all good things regarding her immunology tests (sent out weeks ago). She will also be seeing the dentist that day, which is going to help those crazy front teeth wiggle out. Thank you all for loving and supporting our family!

Update 9/28: Today was a very busy day for Phoenix Faith at the Riley Outpatient Center. She was seen at the stem cell clinic this morning where (nurse practitioner) Paula and Dr. Skiles delivered the great news we have been awaiting...the immunology tests sent out last month have shown fantastic results and it looks like Phoenix has a functioning immune system! Hallelujah!!! Because of this progress she received a vaccine (pneumococcal) today, and in 4 weeks she will be tested for antibody titers...basically to see if her body responds properly to the vaccine. (This is the only safe way to determine an immune response.) We are absolutely thrilled with this progress...as is her team of doctors. As a bonus today, she saw her dentist this afternoon, who removed her 2 front baby teeth, which had issues coming out on their own. Day +222 has been a fabulous day and we hope this wonderful news brightens your day too. Love to you all. Xoxo

He was raised to the sublime degree of Master Mason in Cardinal Lodge No. 677 at Weiner on January 31, 1980. He served the lodge as Worshipful Master twice and as Secretary for many years. Some of the many accomplishments and honors he achieved throughout his Masonic career were: He served as Most Illustrious Grand Master of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Arkansas in 1991-1992, Most Excellent Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Arkansas 1993-1994. He received the Grand Encampment of Knight Templars, Knight Commander of the Temple Award in 2005. He was a 32nd degree Scottish Rite Mason and had received the honor of Knight Commander of the Court of Honor in 2009. Survivors include his two sons, Leland Aubrey (Dawn) Haynes, Jr. of Columbia and Thomas Henry (Karen) Haynes of Elgin; and three grandchildren, Justin, Madison, and Bauer Haynes. Aubrey is also survived by his dear friend and close companion of recent, Nancy Lyles Brown. In addition to his parents and wife, Martha Wood Haynes, Aubrey is predeceased by two brothers, John Henry Haynes, Jr. and Herbert “Bubba” Haynes. Memorials may be made in Aubrey's memory to Greenbrier United Methodist Church, 681 Greenbrier-Mossydale Road Winnsboro, SC 29180. Pope Funeral Home is assisting the Haynes family.

William B. Berk, NV: With great sadness, Nevada York Rite announces the passing of one of its own, William B. Berk - on the 17th of September, 2015. William was born on the 3rd of May, 1923. William B. Berk served the fraternity as Grand Master in 1989, Grand High Priest 1974-75, Most Illustrious Grand Master 1976-77, and as Grand Commander-Knights Templar 1977-78. God's finger touched him and he slept. We offer our deepest condolences to his family. My God bless them in this time of sadness. Grand Encampment

*Lord, when thou seeist that my work is done,
Let me not linger on, with failing powers,
Adown the weary hours - a workless worker
In a world of work.
But, with a word, just bid me home,
And I will come - right gladly -
Yea, right gladly I will come.*

Think About it:

1. Don't worry about knowing people, just make yourself worth knowing.
2. Be friendly with the folks you know. If it weren't for them you would be a total stranger.
3. Friends are those who speak to you after others don't.
4. The reason a dog has so many friends is that he wags his tail and not his tongue.
5. The way to have friends is to be willing to lose some arguments.
6. Deal with other's faults as gently as if they were your own.
7. A friend is a person who can step on your toes without messing your shine.
8. You will never have a friend if you must have one without faults.
9. You can make more friends by being interested in them than' trying to have them be interested in you.
10. A real friend is a person who, when you've made a fool of yourself, lets you forget it.
11. A friend is a person who listens attentively while you say nothing.
12. A friend is someone who thinks you're a good egg even though you're slightly cracked.
... and most important ... A FRIEND IS A TREASURE!
